

This is in regards to KLOVE radio station. I feel, and have seen evidence, that KLOVE's uplifting and positive music changes lives, when individuals are changed, the entire community benefits. I have seen people go from calous, self-centered individuals, to loving and compassionate people.

If you allow KLOVE to change -- I would assume we'd see a change in the environment of our community as well.